Paris, Washington DC, 07.07.2015, 11:11 Time

USPA NEWS - The prefecture of Paris & Ile de France presented last week to the media, twenty emblematic projects that make up the ambitious project of Greater Paris. The prefect Jean Francois Carenco, recently appointed on last April, manages the project with energy and enthusiasm, without neglecting obstacles

A NEW WARDEN FOR PARIS ISLAND OF FRANCE TO LEAD THE SCOPE OF GRAND PARIS AS HE PILOTED THE GRAND LYON

Jean Francois Carenco wants to make Paris a true metropolis, like other large cities and metropolises of the best of the world to attract more investors there, still hesitant to the idea of settling in Paris. It is therefore to simplify and streamline transport and other settings which should enhance the attractiveness of a successful agglomeration. Paris is too concentrated towards the centripetal points, namely 2 million "intramural" often separated from the rest of the other 8 million came from the suburbs and outskirts. This is why Paris deserves to become a sexy metropole...if not enough attractive already considering the city the most visited by Foreign tourists in the world.

"As for housing and housing construction multiplications ads, they not only fall under an absolute necessity in a city like Paris, which is experiencing a great crisis for housing but also an act of republican fraternity" according to the prefect Paris, Ile de France." The prefect Carenco, adds "The year 2015 was a very good year with 10% higher than a year earlier and 2013, in terms of social housing contraction rate, meaning 70 000 / year, and which corresponds to my goal. The GRAND PARIS is a tripod that rests on the institutional, housing and transport, as Carenco prefect."

Jean Francois Carenco, recognizes that "this project is that it combines, legislative and much opposition that do not have the same objectives. Parliament should set at 1 January contours of this great project and it will be valid, it is my belief, it is then necessary to start because the battle is fierce with investors, foreign builders who prefer to go far to settle in London or Shanghai, New York rather than Poissy (suburb east of Paris). but in the end it is the common sense will win what is important is to not break the financial mechanics to reach a consensus. "

The objective is clearly displayed by the Prefect of Paris Ile de France: Paris Making one of the most attractive metropolises in the world. It is a gamble, dare, an ambition displayed for a sexy concept planner and ecofriendly.
